

CHICAGO NEWS IN BRIEF

Three cafes in Irving Park police district held up by one-armed robber in 30 minutes. $390.

If police weren't forced to work for Andy Lawrence, perhaps there wouldn't be so many robberies.

J. A. Fowler, chief assistant to Atty. Gen. Wickersham in Chicago on Dept. of Justice business.

Mrs. Bertha Burger, alias Bertha Hutton, alias Lillian Snider, arrested on Randolph, near N. Ann st. Said to be shoplifter.

Mrs. Grace H. King granted divorce from H. B. King and $4,225 alimony by Judge Kavanaugh.

White City voted into fire limits at meeting of council committee on buildings. Riverview likely to be included, too.

John Ryan and Mary A. Ryan, parents of Ald. Joseph F. Ryan, 4th ward, celebrating golden wedding at home, 524 W. 25th pl.

Woman whom police say is wife of Dr. Chandler, of western suburb, arrested for shoplifting. Gave name of Jane Kelly, and address, 532 Oak st.

H. A. Dilg, assistant postmaster, Morton Grove, Ill., arrested for not having auto lamps lit.

Arnold Keller, 1514 Lunt ave., held up and robbed of $210.

John Nilles, 17, employed by E. W. Faber, cigar dealer, 75 W. Harrison st., gave stranger $135 package to hold. Stranger now missing.

Ben Lavis, 24, 1078 W. 14th st., smoked cigarette in bed. May die. Fire damage $200.

Mrs. Nicholas O'Neil, 5403 S. Aberdeen st., fell from 2nd story while cleaning windows. Badly hurt.

Louis Barron, Lessing hotel, Center ave. and Taylor st., run down and injured by auto driven by J. A. Smith, 2251 W. Jackson blvd. No arrest.

C. Klein, 3075 Elbridge ave., driver, injured when auto operated by R. Holmes, 2951 Prairie ave., struck bus. Holmes arrested.

Body believed that of F. Starovasink, Oregon City, Ore., found in river at Van Buren st.

Mayor Harrison's back.

But Andy Lawrence is still running things.

Judge Uhlir held prisoner for half hour in City Hall elevator, which stuck between 4th and 5th floors.

"Fighting Bob" LaFollette still a candidate. Got 36 good delegates, too.

Civil Service Commission's report on building inspection graft to go to council tonight.

Commission probably will roast aldermen for granting special permits to violate building laws.

Theater collapsed yesterday and seriously injured three men.

Unidentified woman fell getting off westbound 59th st. car at S. Green st. Skull fractured. St. Bernard's hospital. May die.

Sergt. Peter Fitzpatrick, Lake st. station, weighs 250. Chased negro bandit into alley. Stuck. Took 4 policemen to get him out.

Some politicians pretend to be